With the book "Such Men as These" coming out next year, I thought it would be fitting to put our list of Korean Veterans up on the website. I kind of doubt how good the book will be, because the message sent out about it it will be published in 2010 on the 50th ANNIVERSARY of the Korean War. Somehow the Collett earned her first battle star in that war 59 years ago. With a little research and using our Reunion data base, I generated the following. The only difference from the Battle Streamers for Vietnam is dates of service as far as information is concerned, and the fact that this list contains the names and battle eligibility for the shipmates. Read the Vietnam article to find out how to get the medals.

Republic of Korea Korean War Service Medal

In a letter dated May 13, 2000, to Secretary of Defense William S. Cohen, Republic of Korea Defense Minister Seong Tae Cho formally announced that his government would provide the Republic of Korea War Service Medal to eligible U.S. veterans of that conflict, or to their surviving next of kin. The medal will be provided at no cost to veterans, and the U.S. Air Force has been designated as the lead agency to receive and distribute the medals

"On the occasion of the 50th Anniversary of the Korean War," Cho wrote, "the Republic of Korea government decided to issue the Republic of Korea War Service Medal to pay tribute to the Korean War veterans for their historic endeavors to preserve freedom of the Republic of Korea and the free world." The two governments will conduct fiftieth anniversary ceremonies throughout 2000-2003 and medals may be applied for at any time during this period.

The medal was originally offered by the Republic of Korea in 1951 to United Nations forces serving in Korea and adjacent waters. At the time U.S. law prohibited the U.S. military from wearing medals issued by foreign governments. Congress changed that in 1954, but by then most U.S. Service members eligible for the medal had returned home.

In 1998 the government of the Republic of Korea renewed its original offer, and on August 20, 1999, the Defense Department approved the acceptance and wear of the medal. Approximately 1.8 million U.S. veterans of the Korean War are eligible to receive the medal (next of kin of eligible deceased veterans can also apply for the medal).

ESTABLISHING AUTHORITY

The Korean War Service Medal was originally authorized in December of 1950 as the 6.25 Incident Participation Medal (6.25 stands for June 25, 1950, the date the North Koreans launched their invasion of South Korea). It was re-authorized in 1951 by Presidential Order No. 390 issued by President Syngman Rhee and its design changed to the present form.

ACCEPTANCE BY THE UNITED STATES

Acceptance and wear of the Korean War Service Medal was delayed. The medal was originally offered to United States forces on November 15, 1951, but acceptance was declined because at the time there was no statutory authorization allowing acceptance of foreign awards for service during the Korean War. However, Public Law 354 (83rd Congress), approved May 8, 1954, authorized the acceptance and wear of foreign medals and decorations relative to the Korean War. Approval for military personnel to accept and wear this medal was eventually authorized in a memorandum issued by the Assistant Secretary of the Army (Manpower & Reserve Affairs), "Military Decorations and Awards Policy - Korean War Service Medal," dated August 20, 1999.

The dates listed above are those dates where the USS Collett was within the boundarties defined in the Korean Service Medal. Liberty in Japan, Okinawa, and Formosa did not count for participation, but due to a quirk of Geography the Port of Honk Kong fell within the area listed.

Due to a lack of exact dates for some personnel, they may actually be eligible for more battle stars. Some personnel may have transferred to/from other ships where they were eligible for more battle stars. Some personnel who served aboard the USS Collett but are not listed here may have transferred to another ship and became eligible. During the period of eligibility for the Korean Medal, 858 persons served on board the USS Collett. 798 names are listed who are known to actually have been aboard during those dates for the United Nations and Korean Service Medals. 630 names are listed for those who are actually eligible for the Republic of Korea Korean War Medal. 291 names are listed for the "Sitting Ducks Squadron" battle star (K3) and 15 more who earned a battle star for K1 above. 339 names for K6 above, 295 names for K7 above, 337 names for K8 above, and 306 names for K9 above.

In the following table, the Medals indicated, R designates Republic of Korea eligibility, U designates United Nations Medal, and K designates the Korean Service Medal.
